DOKUMENTINDHOLD

Ernest Mancoba skriver til Ole Henning Hansen og glæder sig over deres forbindelse. Han skriver at han og Sonja Ferlov Mancoba tror på at alle dem der arbejder med kultur bør fokusere deres kræfter på at slå bro over gabet mellem kultur og civilisation og herigennem arbejde for et fælles udtryk baseret på en forening af ånd og materie. Han takker for hvad Ole Henning Hansen har skrevet til ham om en vikingeutstilling, som Mancoba anser for at være vores fælles arv.

My very dear Ole,

You can be sure we are thinking about you constantly and especially during this season of the year when those near one's heart take a particularly symbolic meaning which evokes reminiscences of past times when feasts and rejoicings were occasions for the renewal and strengthening of human links and contacts.

Our meeting with you, Torben and your sympathetic team of fellow-workers has given us courage and hope that we humans have yet a chance to find ourselves and to poise for another stage in the great pilgrimage of the human spirit.

Sonja and I appreciate your efforts and the objectives that you have set yourselves in a world that seems to be floating adrift in a chant-less ocean and seems to be disintegrating and falling apart more and more each day.
Sonja and I believe that all of us who are working in the field of Culture should join our efforts to narrow the gap between culture and civilisation in our day by working on a common expression based on the natural unity of the spirit and matter.

We were very glad for the beautiful card you sent us from New York and we thank you for the impressions of the Viking Exhibition.
This is the heritage of us all with which we must join link in order to comprehend the present and to feel our way towards the future -

Now dear Ole we embrace you and Torben very warmly and ask you to receive
Our Most Heartfelt
Best Wishes for a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year

Wonga Sonja and Ernest
