DOCUMENT CONTENT

Ernest Mancoba writes to Troels Andersen that he is thinking about their lifelong friendship and joint efforts to create interpersonal understanding and change through art and culture. Not least Troels Andersen's efforts regarding Sonja Ferlov Mancoba's art and message. He looks forward to Troels Andersen's visit to Paris at the beginning of the new year and thanks him for helping them with their project to create an exhibition of Sonja Ferlov Mancoba's sculptures in Denmark.translated 2025-02-07

Very dear Troels,

Many thanks for your encouraging letter which revived in us Wonga and me remembrances of our life-long experiences of friendship and collaboration towards the effort for a better human understanding and the survival of our mankind.

For the moment I have not yet found the sufficient calm of mind and spirit to collect myself and settle down to express it. It is not to be done in haste.

the support and work you have devoted to safeguard and preserve the effort and contribution Sonja has in the present-day struggle to keep alive the spiritual and cultural values of our human and universal heritage

First of all dear Troels Wanga and I send you and your companion our deep felicitations and congratulations for the information you gave us of your decision to live together. We look forward to seeing you all in our next visit to Denmark

We are also looking forward to your visit to Paris at the beginning of the year with gladness - We are thankful you could contact some museums who might be willing to arrange an exposition of Sonja's sculptures in Denmark inspite of all.

We shall speak more about this important project when we meet.

Until then we ask you to give our greetings and remembrances and Best Wishes of the Season to all the family - We think often of Nikolaj and Mikael

Sincerely yours

Wanga and Sonest
